Division of Epidemiology & Biostatistics Monthly Newsletter
July/August 2019

Congratulations & News
Congratulations to Hlengiwe Madlala for successfully completing her MPH with distinction & for presenting this work at PHASA 2019!

Congratulations also to Thoko Malaba (pictured below) & Priscilla Nyambayo for successfully presenting their PhD proposal & moving on the next stage of PhD studies!

The Division of Epidemiology and Biostatistics has a joinable mailing list – we use this to announce our seminars, workshops and short courses. Sign up by sending an email to epibio-division-l-join@lists.uct.ac.za.

Mandela day was celebrated with a joint CIDER & DivEB as well as a month long collection for Nonceba women’s shelter & the Great Girls programme.

The Division will be running a new short course: Introduction to Causal Inference on 4-7 November 2019. Instructors: Dr Jabulani Ncayiyana, Prof Jonathan Chevrier (McGill University, Canada). Details are available here: http://www.ceuhealth.uct.ac.za/introduction-causal-inference
