

FACULTY OF HEALTH SCIENCES

THE PROFESSIONAL MASTERS IN CHEMICALS RISK MANAGEMENT

The Professional Masters in Chemicals Risk Management (MCRM), offered by the Environmental Health Division in the School of Public Health and Family Medicine at UCT, provides students with an interdisciplinary approach to chemicals risk management.

The curriculum covers the following

- Pesticide Risk Management
- International Chemical Management Agreements
- Pesticide Health and Safety Management
- Research Literacies
- Policy Brief and Risk Communication development
- Core Course in Chemicals Risk Management
- Chemicals Risk Assessment for Managers
- Conducting a Situation Analysis for Health & Environmental Impact
- Chemicals Management Project

Requirements

- Four-year undergraduate degree or a relevant postgraduate diploma in various disciplines (e.g., chemistry, science, toxicology, public health, medicine, environmental sciences, agriculture, biology, political science, economics, sociology, anthropology, psychology).
- Computer literacy, internet access and English Proficiency

Duration

Two-year part-time learning programme.

Delivery mode

Web-based courses with mandatory face-to-face learning.

Closing date for applications

30 September 2021

Apply at:

<http://applyonline.uct.ac.za>

For more information, please see the programme brochure and flyer at http://www.publichealth.uct.ac.za/phfm_environmental-health

Further Information

Division of Environmental Health

School of Public Health & Family Medicine, Faculty of Health Sciences

Tel: +27 21 404 7661

E-mail: mcrm@uct.ac.za

University of Cape Town